

Hypotony: Diagnosis and Management From theory to practice

DATE: 11th of December, 2026

Moorfields Education Hub, 15 Ebenezer Street, London N1 7NH

08:30	Registration and refreshments
09:00	Welcome and Introduction Mr Harry Petrushkin - Uveitis Consultant
09:15	The Hypotony Protocol: Clinical Rationale and Framework Mr Harry Petrushkin - Uveitis Consultant
09:45	Electrophysiological Aspects to be Considered Before Indicating Treatment Mr Antonio Calcagni - Electrophysiology Consultant
10:15	Hypotony and the Cornea: From Structural Change to Surgical Decision-Making Mr Mark Wilkins - Cornea and External Diseases Consultant
10:45	Break for refreshments
11:00	When Low Is Too Low: Hypotony in Glaucoma Practice Mr Nick Strouthidis - Glaucoma Consultant
11:30	The End-Stage Vitreoretinal Eye? Rethinking Chronic Hypotony Ms Elizabeth Yang - Vitreoretinal Consultant
12:00	Seeing Beyond the Low Pressure: The Role of Ultrasound in Ocular Hypotony James Gooch - Head Ultrasonographer
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Live Case Discussions Faculty
15:30	Hands-on Wet lab Faculty
16:30	Closure Mr Harry Petrushkin - Uveitis Consultant

This course is kindly supported by: